LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS

I, Raymond Beyer, do hereby will my managership to anyone fortunate enough to be Coach's "right-hand man."

I, Perrie Jo Bode, leave my duck tails to Evelyn Klaerner.

I, Mary Jo Brodbeck, leave with two degrees: a high school and a MRS. degree.

I, Corinne Cameron, do hereby will my beautiful figure to one of the less fortunate, especially Doris Evers.

We, Margaret and Marie Connor, will our pleasing smile and friendly ways to the Keyes Twins.

I, James Cox, being able to do the bop to the Bandera Waltz, do hereby will my talent to Kathy Moellering.

I, Patsy Cox, leave with Guidos.

I, Roy Crenwelge, will leave as soon as possible in my little green pick-up.

We, Betty Eckhardt and Florine Eckhardt, leave our scholastic ability to Stanley Sultemeier.

I, James Eckhardt, leave in my little black coupe to join my "Harem of Women."

I, Judith Evers, will my twirling ability to Genie Sue Ochs.

I, Eldon Ray Feller, just plain leave!

I, Stanley Feller, leave Coach's class with much adieu about nothing.

I, Elmer Friedrich, leave to go to Washington D.C. to be a secretary.

I, Dortha Fae Fritz, take everything with me because nobody wants it.

I, Ruth Gunn, leave after surviving civics class.

I, Clifford Hahne, do hereby will my drag-racing ability to Waymon St. Clair.

I, Freddie Hartmann, will my golden horn to Eric Nagel.

I, Mary Louise Heinen, leave to set up house keeping in a vine covered cottage.

I, William Henke, just hope I leave.

I, Jerry Hohenberger, bequeath my ability to "beat" the drums to a "hepped-up" junior.

We, Raymond Hohmann and Robert Houy, will our ambitious manner to future English students.

I, Walter Humes, bequeath my cheerleading figure and ability to future cheerleaders.

I, Floyd Immel, leave to join my sidekick, "Sagebrush Shorty."

I, Herbert Itz, do hereby will my extraordinary looks, extreme intelligence, and my capability to write themes to Roy Woerner.

I, Janet Itz, bequeath my collection of dinner-ware from the Hut to the girls for their "hopeless chests."

I, Royce Jost, leave Fritztown to my little sister Joyce.

I, Betty Keffler, will my slow, sneakly, graceful walk to Louise Feuge.

I, Raymond Klaehn, bequeath my classic funny books to next year's English IV students.

I, Travis Klaerner, being of such charming and graceful nature, do hereby bequeath these qualities to "Blue" Beckmann.

I, Juliette Klein, leave in a little red Ford.

I, Temple Klett, do hereby will my crew cut, green Plymouth, and "Going Steady?" status to all the seventh graders who will have to start now to match my record.

I, Jeanie Knoche, being of boisterous nature, do hereby bequeath my laugh to "quiet" little Rosie Lee Treibs.

I, Earl James Knopp, will my love to the girls especially to the younger ones.

I, Merle Kolmeier, bequeath my teasing dark eyes to Jo Ann Warner, and hope she'll be able to catch her man.

I, Harvey Kramer, bequeath my masculine attraction to Kurt Poehlmann.

I, Arthur Kuhlmann, will my girl troubles to Paulie Althaus who has some of his own.

We, Mabel Leyendecker and Charlie Mae Ernst, leave the lunch room food to those less fortunate.

I, Jannis Matranga, do hereby will my "Frenchie" haircut to Carol Ann Gold.
 I, Betty Moldenhauer, do hereby bequeath an old love letter to Rosie.
 I, Patsy Morgan, bequeath my freckles to Shirley Freidrich and leave because I helped to write this book.
 I, Erna Nagel, leave Schnelles holding the shoes.
 I, Dorothy Neffendorf, will my baby sitting technique to Nina Wisian.
 I, Austin Nettle, will my ability to always win to my little brother, Bobby.
 I, Bambie Pehl, will my ability to take dictation and read my own shorthand to next year's shorthand students.
 I, Billy Petmecky, being extremely good looking and having the finer features of Adomian, leave the girls with tears in their eyes.
 I, Victor Priess, bequeath my nickname "Chicky" to anybody that it fits.
 I, Marlene Rahe, will my pleasing smile and friendly ways to Dorothy Pandermuhl.
 We, Clinton Reeh and Kermit Reeh, having all the qualities of a good hillbilly, do bequeath our horns to Carlton Sieckmann and Kermit Priess.
 I, Alfons Riba, leave the senior class sorrowfully.
 I, Rosalind Rode, bequeath my magnetic appearance to Elaine Rode.
 We, Kermit Roeder and Henry Roos, leave English gladly.
 I, Stanley Sauer, will Virginia to anyone able to take her away from me.
 I, Ver Nell Schmidtzsky, leave with fond memories of bookkeeping.
 I, Merlyn Schuch, bequeath my "Aggie Spirit" to the pep squad.
 I, Charles Schumacker, will my winning smile to Charles Trice.
 I, Calvin Schumann, will be glad to hear the "Grand March" at commencement exercises.
 I, Fred Scott, will my red hair to Casanova Sembritzky.
 I, Rachel Senff, leave to raise little cheerleaders.
 I, Doris Spaeth, will my basketball ability to Lottie Helen.
 I, Logan St. Clair, do hereby bequeath my good grades and "brains" to Curtis Merz with the hopes that he will graduate in the next five years.
 I, Robert Straube, leave because I couldn't take it any longer.
 I, Evelyn Sultemeier, leave homemaking gladly.
 I, Fritz Tehas, being able to swing and sway to Sammy Kaye, do hereby will my talent to Willard Dearing.
 I, Kay Thompson, leave to set up housekeeping and raise little buckaroos.
 I, Wilbur Thompson, bequeath all my talents and horned rimmed glasses to Ronnie Cravens.
 We, Agnes Treibs and Vernell Treibs, will all of our A /'s to future seniors.
 I, Marcia Nell Vollmar, will my precious moments in English and civics to Julie Beckmann.
 I, Robert Walter, leave my father to all the future general science students.
 I, Viola Weber, will my English chair to Lillian Dietz.
 I, Carlos Weigand, leave Macbeth to future English IV students.
 I, Robert Lee Williams, leave before I'm kicked out.
 I, Florence Wunderlich, leave all my sewing pins and wonderful things in home economics to the up-coming seniors.

We, the Seniors of 1955, will always treasure the years we have spent in F.H.S. Therefore, as a group, we leave to all the underclassmen the friendship, the comradeship, and the loyalty of our faculty. We have found them to be life-long friends as well as tutors.

It is our desire to will to the Juniors the joys and pleasures that we as Seniors have shared. Also it is our wish that they as Seniors of 1956 will feel as we do at having attained the highest goal in high school life.
